
Explore More of the Outdoors in Kentucky

If you are looking for an escape, Kentucky is the place to play with abundant wilderness and waters to explore, including the world's longest cave (Mammoth Cave National Park) and two of the country's largest man-made lakes (Kentucky and Barkley). But getting away from it all doesn't have to mean being in the middle of nowhere. Kentucky's ever-growing list of designated Trail Towns put you near the best outdoor action in the state – including hundreds of miles of trails, woods and waters – but keep you in cities and towns offering hotels, restaurants, attractions, entertainment and other conveniences to round out your stay. For the complete list, visit kentuckytourism.com/ky-outdoors/trail-towns

Kentucky's 17 State Resort Parks are another great choice for a home base as you enjoy your outdoor adventures. Several protect Kentucky's iconic outdoor treasures such as Natural Bridge and Cumberland Falls while others are nestled in the mountains or on the lake shore. Check out all the parks have to offer at parks.ky.gov
